VBS a Success

With as many as 40 young people showing up on some days, the co-sponsored Vacation Bible School at the Church of the Nazarene, held June 9-13, was a big success. The free VBS was a joint effort of the Bread of Life Church of the Nazarene, FPC, and First Christian Church.

FPC took care of the crafts each day. Thanks to all the FPC volunteers who helped out. Adults included Bettina Zvanut, Brenda Estes, and Toni Deaton. Younger folks helping included Brenda's grandchildren Cas, McCleary, and Noelle, and Rev. Rascoe's children Elizabeth and Julian.

Three youngsters with FPC ties attended: Trenton Zvanut, Cal Conner, and Evie Connie. Trenton is the grandchild of Bettina Zvanut, while Cal and Evie are grandchildren of Brenda Estes.

CW Festival & Flea Market

There will be a Country Western Festival & Flea Market tomorrow (Saturday, June 14th) from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Bread of Life Church of the Nazarene to help support its VBS program. There will be a band, vendors, and a bounce house.

If someone would like to have a table at the flea market, it is free to set one up, though a donation will be appreciated to go to Jan Wilton and BOLCN, for help to cover the cost of utilities while hosting VBS this year.

Quick Trip to Detroit for Rev. Rasco

Rev. Krista Rasco is taking part in the "Women's and Young Women's Leadership Development Event" on June 13 – 14, in Detroit, Michigan. The event precedes the Presbyterian USA Church's 2014 General Assembly. Rev. Rasco's trip will be a quick one because she will be back in the pulpit on Sunday. But before she comes back, she will get to attend the General Assembly's opening worship service tomorrow (Saturday).

Nursery Substitute Still Needed

Nancy McFarland is taking a break and needs one or more volunteers to replace her in the nursery. She has time to train you if needed, but please call her at 903-408-7240 as soon as possible. The job entails taking care of little ones through Sunday School and the worship service.

Covered Dish Luncheon Honors Kiley Towne

Don't forget! Tomorrow (Saturday, June 14) is the Presbyterian Women-sponsored covered dish luncheon for Commerce High graduate Kiley Towne. She is the granddaughter of FPC's Mona Towne and the daughter of Jeff and Missie Towne.

All FPC women are invited to attend.

Making table decorations

What could be more appropriate than a mortarboard for a luncheon honoring a graduate?

How About a Day Out?

There's still time to be a part of the Presbyterian Women's Day Out. The event will start with a gathering in the church parking lot at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, June 21. The group will proceed to Sulphur Springs for a some antique and other shopping and then lunch. The plan is to be back by 1 p.m. unless the group is having too much fun.
